1. In February 1954 new directives were issued by the SED Central Committee to all SED Kreis headquarters. In these directives it was pointed out that SED Kreis headquarters were to intensify their activities in all industrial enterprises with special stress being laid on the fulfillment of the current Five-Year Plan. These activities were to be carried out in cooperation with party cells, plant managements, and local FDGB, FDJ, and DFD organizations. The special aim of this operation was to induce workers to increase their work productivity.
2. In detail the following orders were issued:
 - (1) The number of political rallies was to be increased. Measures were to be taken to ensure a 100 percent attendance of workers.
 - (2) Activities designed to increase the technical efficiency of the workers were to be [redacted] workers must undergo additional training.
 - (3) All workers of industrial plants must become members of the FDGB and the DFD. The same applies to the FDJ for workers under 24.
 - (4) Propaganda for voluntary extra shifts must be intensified. On the average each worker should sign up for ten additional four-hour shifts.
 - (5) Propaganda for voluntary saving contracts designed to help finance rehabilitation work in East Germany is to be conducted on a large scale.
